BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

U. G. Beaver Says He Did Not Use Any of Company's Money.

His Trial Will Probably be Held at Connersville in October.

Ulysses G. Beaver, the Glenwood stock buyer, who was arrested some time ago upon an affidavit filed in Squire Cates' court at Connersville by Allen Beeler, representing the firm of Parr, Moffett & Company, Indianapolis stock dealers, charging him with misappropriating about $384 of the company's money, was in the city today and took occasion to deny the charges made against him.

Mr. Beaver says that the money did not belong to the Parr-Moffett company, but that it was advanced to him personally by Beeler. He says that Beeler, while upon the stand during the preliminary hearing at Connersville a week ago last Saturday, could not swear that he (Beaver) had swindled him.

Mr. Beaver says that he shipped several car loads of stock to Indianapolis and that some of the animals were killed in a wreck at New Palestine and others died from various causes while standing in the stock yards while awaiting delivery. Beaver claims that the money was lost in this manner and not through any crookedness on his part.

Mr. Beaver at his preliminary trial, was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $500. Mr. Beaver says the Parr-Moffett company made an effort to secure a change of venue to Marion county, but failed. Mr. Beaver intends to fight the case against him to the bitter end. Several prominent citizens in both Rush and Fayette counties have promised to aid him financially. The trial will probably be held in October. Congressman Watson has been retained by Mr. Beaver to defend him.

OIL TROUBLE WILL REACH THE COURTS

Receiver Will be Asked For by Anti-O'Connell Interests—
Service on Stockholders.

It has developed that a receiver would be asked for by the stockholders in the Buena Vista Oil company, who are opposing the interests of John O'Connell and others. McKee, Little & Frost, of Connersville, have been retained by them, and Mr. McFee, a Muncie attorney, and Reuben Conner, also of Connersville, are said to be employed by O'Connell and his friends.

Notices have been served on stockholders that a receiver will be asked for, and it is said that the necessary papers will be filed in court as soon as they can be prepared.

A man named Parker, who lives near Clarksburg, and only a short distance from Buena Vista, and the moving spirits in asking for a receiver, though it is understood that several prominent stockholders are behind them. On the other hand, O'Connell's friends claim he controls a majority of the stock and would go ahead with developing the field, if let alone.

REMAINS UNANSWERED.

"I say, daddy," began little Tommy, "what?"
"Ask your mother," answered the tired father.
"Well, but it isn't a silly question I want to ask you."
"All right," wearily. "What is it?"
"Well, if the end of the world was to come, and the world was destroyed while a man was up in a balloon, where would he land when he came down?"

WILL IT SPREAD

Princeton Has Instituted an Anti-Treating League and Elected General Officers.

Pioneer Lodge No. 1, Anti-Treating League of America, was organized at Princeton, Thursday night by Louis J. Oswald, supreme organizer, and other supreme officers. The first league starts with 300 charter members and there are indications that the membership will be doubled in the next three months. The order will be unique in America. Its main tenet is opposition to treating in saloons; in point of fact, every man paying for his own drink. James McCormick, editor of the Princeton Tribune, is the founder of the order. The purpose is to organize throughout the State and nation, much like other orders.

BREAKS COLLAR BONE IN A FALL

George Baker is Injured at Caldwell's Livery Stable.

George Baker, employed at Caldwell's livery barn met with a painful injury last night which will cause him to cease his work for a time. Mr. Baker in stepping over a pair of buggy shafts tripped himself and fell. He noticed a pain shoot through his neck and shoulders but thought nothing of it. This morning the injury was so painful that he decided to consult a physician. He was examined and it was found that his collar bone was broken. The injury was dressed and he is resting easier. Baker has been employed at the Caldwell barn for sixteen years.

BOWMAN FAMILY LIVES ON CHARITY

Wife, of Man in Jail Here, is in Destitute Circumstances.

Mrs. Obadiah Bowman, who lies in invalid at her home in Whitely, and whose husband is being held in the county jail here on a charge of embezzlement, is relying upon the charity of neighbors for food and care.

A postal card from Mrs. Mary P. Head, of Redkey, states that she was in possession of a letter from a neighbor of Mrs. Bowman, saying that she has been without food and attention. Mrs. Head says in her card that she has been ill and would be unable to render any assistance.

Bowman's wife is in a critical condition with cancer. Her husband has been unable to secure bail so that he might provide for his family.

A Rhinelander, Wisconsin, chemist has produced a liquid which is 11,000 times stronger than the best quality of beer, and one drop of it placed in a large beer glass and filled with ice water produces a glass of beer of the finest grade. The extract contains alkaloid from hops just 9500 times stronger than crude hops, and the active principles of malt 12,700 times the strength of common malt made of the best barley. With the above is combined an article which on contact with water produces instantaneous fermentation, forming 3½ per cent. alcohol, the amount existing in the best brand of beer. A one-ounce bottle of the extract will make 680 schooners, or about thirty gallons of pure beer.

The crown of a human tooth is covered by a brilliant white cap of enamel, which is not only the hardest tissue of the human body, consisting as it does of 96.5 per cent. of mineral and of 3.5 per cent. of animal matter, but also the hardest known organic substance.

PART OF THE PRESIDENT

In Pending Peace Parley Has Been Decided On, it is Said.

The Czar is Now Believed to be Ready to Hear Terms of Settlement.

Washington, June 8.—Preliminary peace negotiations between Russia and Japan are generally believed to be under way, and it is conceded that President Roosevelt will in all probability act not as a mediator, but as "the friendly channel of communication." There is as yet no official admission that Russia has accepted what Count Cassini in his cablegram to Count Lamsdorff last week described as the "offer of good will of the president," although instructions to the ambassador are believed to have reached here in a long cablegram which has been received at the Russian embassy.

All that can be authoritatively said regarding this cablegram is that it concerned Count Cassini's cablegram of last week.

Immediately upon his return to his legation last night after a long conference with the president, Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, began the preparation of a dispatch to his government upon which he was occupied until quite late. For the first time since the announcement of the Russian fleet the minister did not feel at liberty to comment upon any phase of the situation.

"The situation is too delicate at this moment for me to say anything," he remarked. "When there is something definite, perhaps I may have something to say. But I do not expect anything definite for some days."

It can be stated that the president through Mr. Takahira is endeavoring to get some definite idea regarding Japan's peace terms. Mr. Takahira is giving him all the assistance that he can, but the most he can do is to inform his government of the president's wishes and to emphasize his personal conviction that the president can be trusted absolutely to guard Japan's legitimate interests. Indeed, a fortunate phase of the present situation is that both Mr. Takahira and Count Cassini are personally convinced of the president's absolute impartiality and sincerity of purpose in the delicate undertaking which he has shouldered.

LOCAL KNIGHTS WILL ATTEND

Many Will go to Connersville on Sunday For Memorial Services.

All arrangements for the Knights of Pythias memorial exercises to be held at Connersville, Sunday are now completed.

Invitations have been extended to all lodges in the district, and a great gathering of the members of the order is expected. A special train will be run from Muncie to accommodate those from the north who desire to go. Rushville will furnish a large delegation.

The Third Regiment Uniform Rank will meet there on that date and will take part in the day's exercises. The Regiment is composed of twelve companies, including Connersville, Rushville, Knightstown, Wilkinson, New Castle, Modoc, Hagerstown, Winchester, Cambridge City and two companies from Muncie. The twelve companies contain four hundred men, and it is expected that at least half that number will be in line of march.

The Rex and Independent bands of Connersville have been engaged for the occasion.

The imperial kitchen of the Austrian emperor at Vienna costs about $250 a day, says a German contemporary. In this sum, however, are not included the extra expenses for court diners, etc.

A FREE MAN

Tom Hale Will Shortly Marry His Faithful Sweetheart at Cambridge City.

Thomas Hale, the Cambridge City young man, who was sentenced to serve a term of 90 days in the Marion county jail for assault and battery on Thomas Siebert, a year ago at Indianapolis, in which Siebert was knocked through a large plate glass window, at Illinois and Washington streets, and killed, was discharged last week, having completed his sentence.

Hale, after he was arrested, remained in jail for nine consecutive months, during which time he stood two trials. When it was shown that the killing of Siebert was an accident, he was given a sentence for assault and battery.

During the last two months he has been a trusty at the jail, being allowed to go home. However, he was required to report at intervals, and not once has he failed to comply with the order. At the appointed time Hale appeared at the jail and Sheriff Soubrier dismissed him. The young man, after thanking him and his deputies, gave a sigh of relief as he exclaimed: "At last I am a free man."

He was employed by Louis G. Deschler at Indianapolis, and has many friends, all of whom were true to him during his trouble. The most faithful of these was the young woman, Miss Williams, also of Cambridge City, whom he is going to marry. She was a constant caller on him while he was confined in prison and sat in the court room during both of his trials. Preparations are now being made for an early marriage.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING IS OVER

Last Night's Session Ends the Conference at Shelby-ville.

The fifteenth annual conference of the Connersville District Epworth League adjourned at Shelbyville Wednesday night, after an address by Rev. M. A. Farr on "The Three L's of the Epworth League."

Wednesday's session began with a sunrise prayer-meeting at 5:30 o'clock at the church. It was in charge of Charles E. Grubb. The regular opening exercises did not begin until after 9 o'clock. The subject of "World Evangelism," was taken up, Sarah Laird presiding. This was discussed for one-half hour. Miss Edell Chaney gave a recitation, followed by a paper by Mrs. Maize. After a solo by Miss Edna Pierson, the Rev. W. R. Plummer gave the morning address on "World Evangelism—Its Hindrances and Remedies." The social and literary department was the next matter taken up by the convention. This was in charge of Charles E. Grubb, of Connersville. The subjects discussed were "Good and Bad Books," "The Reading Habit," "Building up a Private Library," "The Epworth League Reading Course," "A Symposium," "Books that Have Helped Me." Frank Hull gave a talk on the social department, used as a means of bringing young men to Christ.

The afternoon session consisted of the reports of the committees and business. Bible study was taken up by the Rev. E. B. Rawls, followed by a solo by Miss Lucile Major. W. O. Hull had charge of the spiritual department discussions, and this was followed by an address on Christian character by E. V. Hawkins. Rozella E. Blackburn read a paper on "To Obtain Results," and an address was delivered by the Rev. N. H. King, his subject being "My Brother's Keeper." A discussion followed, after which there was a consecration service and the Lord's supper.

The exercises Tuesday night began with a song service, followed by devotional exercises in charge of Rev. J. T. O'Neil, pastor of the West street church. The Rev. W. F. Thirkield gave a lecture on "The March and Mission of Anglo-Saxon Civilization."

THEY WILL USE ARMS IF NEED BE

Norwegians Will Maintain Their Declaration of Independence.

King Oscar's Refusal to Grant Separate Consular Representation Leads to Action.

Christians, Norway, June 8.—The Norwegian parliament has voted unanimously to dissolve the union which has existed for many years between Norway and Sweden. This action followed the refusal of King Oscar to sanction the bill recently passed by the parliament providing for a separate consular service for Norway. A breach between the countries has been expected for a long time.

The present government will temporarily assume the rights which the king had heretofore.

The parliament also sent a statement to the king stating that no ill will was entertained toward him, notifying him of the action taken and asking the king to allow some prince of the Bernadotte house to assume the Norwegian crown.

The belief is general that King Oscar will yield and grant the demand. If he does agree and appoints a prince of the house of Bernadotte as requested, it is thought possible that he will select Prince Gustave Adolphe, son of the Crown Prince Gustave, who is to be married to the Princess Margaret of Connaught on June 15. By doing this the two countries would again be united when Gustave mounts the throne in Sweden in succession to his father.

The Popular Feeling.
"Norway from today is a fully independent and sovereign state." This is the text of the editorials in the Norwegian newspapers, and it reflects the spirit with which the people of Norway accept the action of the storting when it proclaimed King Oscar no longer king of Norway. The storting will if necessary defend the step taken by force of arms. If a prince of the house of Bernadotte should consent to occupy the throne of Norway he must give up all idea of succession to the Swedish throne. It is learned that Crown Prince Gustave will return immediately from Berlin.

THE CRAWFORD CASE SETTLED

Defendants are to Pay all Costs and $750 to the Plaintiff, Mrs.
Margaret Ketchum.

The Crawford will contest, which promised to be one of the most noted legal battles ever waged in Fayette county, came to a sudden termination this week, when the counsel for the interested parties, after repeated conferences, effected a compromise of the existing differences. The terms under which the case was settled have not been made public, but the Republican is reliably informed that the basis for the settlement included the payment of all costs by the defendants and an additional $750 to the plaintiff.

The suit was a contest of the will of the late Sarah Crawford, of Orange township, Fayette county, whose estate in cash and notes was valued at $10,000. Margaret E. Ketchum et al. were plaintiffs and R. W. Sipe, executor of the will, and Alice Mauzy, the principal beneficiary, were made defendants. The allegation in the complaint was that the testatrix was of unsound mind when the will was drawn and also that the instrument was unduly executed.

The two principal beneficiaries under the will were adopted children of the decedent and the plaintiff, Mrs. Ketchum was a niece.

Half a ton of coal to each inhabitant is the average the world over. The United States produces four tons to the inhabitant.

COMPUTING TANKS

A Very Ingenious Device Invented
by Two Anderson Men.

Frank Dunn and George Louiso, of Anderson, have applied for a patent on a new computing oil tank which they have been working on for some time. The tank is for use in grocery stores, where kerosene and gasoline are sold at retail. The computing device is similar to that of a computing scale or a computing cheese cutter, having a register showing both the amount and the money value of oil taken from the tank. The tanks will be made in one or two barrel sizes for the convenience of the small retail dealer. The tank will be manufactured at the Dunn-Louiso factory at Eldorado.

BASE BALL

Greensburg is framing up for Manager Geraghty's bunch in grand style. Donnell will pitch the game against Rushville there on the 15th. "Doc" Newton, of the New York Americans, will pitch the return game here on the 16th. Both Donnell and Newton are out at practice every day and both are showing good form.

"PERHAPS when the Rushville ball team 'gets a reputation' Connersville will take them on."—Connersville Examiner. Well, brother, we seem to be getting it, with three victories over Lebanon, and shut-out victories over Shelbyville, Frankfort, Lebanon, the All Collegians, etc. Rushville has won sixteen games out of twenty-two played this year.

Greensburg News: Rushville fans are being filled up on dope which makes them confident that Geraghty's bunch will take three straight games from the Reds. They actually believe Rushville has a better team than ours. Spinney's message to Geraghty is "Just keep feeling good until June 15th, for we are going to win the first game."

Connersville Examiner: "The Rushville Republican is of the opinion that the Connersville team is not entitled too much credit for defeating such teams as the Dayton Clippers, Martinsville, etc. As the Clippers handed it to Rushville very nicely the day before they played in Connersville, we don't think our folks would be given much credit for defeating such teams as Rushville. As for the Martinsville team, they certainly have a much better record than Rushville. They have only been defeated once this year and have beaten the Duesseldorfers twice, shutting them out last Sunday, 11 to 0. They have four shut-out games to their credit. Any team that can beat these Dutchmen are entitled to a game with the Connersville champions."

In answer to this we desire to state that the Dayton Clippers have never played in this city. In some manner the Clippers spread the report that they defeated Rushville. The only Dayton teams which have met Rushville are the National Cash Register team and the Dayton Reserves of the Sunday League. Both of those teams can put it all over Connersville in a minute. Rushville has never had to schedule games with a team like the Muncie Wachtells yet. As to the Duesseldorfers, Rushville walloped them hard last year and has them so badly outclassed this year that they are hesitating to play here.

Team's Schedule.

Manager Geraghty has booked the Rushville team as follows during the next three weeks: Sunday, June 11th, at Shelbyville, 2 games, 9:30 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.; June 14th, Kentland at Rushville; June 15th at Greensburg; June 16th, Greensburg here; June 17th, at Columbus; June 18th, Columbus here; June 20th, at Boswell; June 21st, at Fowler; June 22d, at Kentland; June 23d, at Fowler; June 24th, at Lebanon; June 25th, Lebanon here; July 2d, 3d and 4th are being held open for Connersville. Manager Geraghty will not book any more teams until he completes the arrangements with the Greensburg management for the twelve games to be played by the two teams.

A THIRD GAME FROM LEBANON

Rushville Wins a 6 to 2 Victory in Wednesday's Game.

Conaughton, the New Twirler, Pitched Superb Article of Ball For Rushville.

Rushville scored her third victory over Lebanon Wednesday in a slow game at the South Main street park. A fair sized crowd was out to see the game.

Cornelius Conaughton, Rushville's new twirler, hailing from the Indianapolis Duesseldorfers, was sent to the rubber and for seven innings, no better ball was ever pitched on the local diamond, than that served by him. Conny had plenty of speed, all the curves, and his delivery was a complete puzzle to the visiting batsmen. Even Shaw, Lebanon's hard hitting left fielder was unable to connect with the ball. During those seven innings, Cornelius allowed one hit and it was of the scratch variety. He was given good support throughout the entire game. Conaughton's work pleased the fans greatly and it suited the management to such an extent that the O. K. stamp was placed upon him. The pitcher has been ill for some time and yesterday was the first game he has pitched in several weeks. In the eighth inning his arm began to hurt and he was a trifle wild. He is gaining strength, however, and says he will be in proper condition in a few days. Wagner and McClellan distinguished themselves in the game by good batting. Bush was slightly injured in the first inning while sliding home.

Lebanon first scored in the initial inning. Behringer was passed, Shaw sacrificed, and Behringer stole third, scoring when Morgan, in an attempt to retire Hardin at first throw wide, the ball striking Hardin in the back. The visitors scored their second and last run in the seventh. Ellis was given a base on balls, reached third on Brown's single to right field and scored on Morgan's wild throw to retire Schurr at first.

Rushville registered twice in the first. McClellan beat out a bunt; Morgan reached first on a fielder's choice, Bush being caught at the plate. They stole third and second respectively and both scored on Wagner's two sacker to center.

Two more were tabbed in the fifth; McClellan beat out another bunt, Windy did likewise, Wagner singled to left-center, scoring McClellan. Weaver attempted to sacrifice, but landed safe on Utter's error. Morgan scored on Herold's single to right field.

In the sixth, Bush drove a double to right field; McClellan beat out another bunt, and the former scored on an error by Behringer, who failed to handle Wagner's grounder.

In the seventh Conaughton was passed, stole second, took third on Shaw's error and scored on Morgan's single through short.

RUSHVILLE, IND., JUNE 7, 1905.

The Morton Monument Commission has issued an appeal to the people of Indiana for voluntary contributions to erect a monument as provided for by the last legislature. The people of Indiana owe it to the late Oliver P. Morton and should see to it that a suitable monument is erected to his memory in keeping with the greatness of the man.

The Supreme court of Indiana has rendered the first automobile decision to the effect that drivers of machines may be held liable for damages for accidents caused by frightened horses. This action by the highest court in the State no doubt will cause automobilists to exercise more care and judgment in the running of their machines. But it may be well for drivers of horse vehicles not to forget that under the new law the automobilist has some rights and privileges also. When he gives his signal to a vehicle ahead of him, he is entitled to at least half the road. Many insolent drivers of horse vehicles seem to think the law is all on their side.

It seems that Russia has reached the conclusion to negotiate for peace. At least as a result of the meeting of the Council of Ministers, instructions were sent to the ambassador at Washington to find out what Japan's peace conditions are. President Roosevelt will in all probability act not as a mediator but as the friendly channel of communication. No doubt the determination of the Council of Ministers to ask for peace conditions was only reached after a hard debate to overcome the opposition of the Czar and his train of grand dukes. The honor and prestige of Russia were in the balance, and behind that honor and prestige was the practical fate of autocracy, [dear to the hearts of the grand dukes. Russia is conquered in the fight with Japan. But she is still Russia—patient in her policies, but pursuing them with zeal. The questions involved in the discussion of terms of peace are many and important. Japan has earned and is entitled to all she may ask, but the question of indemnity to be paid may prove the stumbling block.

A SQUARE DEAL

Plan on Which Indianapolis Primaries Will Be Conducted.

Indianapolis, June 8.—Chairman Robert Metzger of the Republican city committee declared today that every candidate in the primaries June 30 will receive fair play. Some of ex-Mayor Bookwalter's friends have been fearful that the leaders who are friendly to Stalaker will have sufficient pull to get the inside track in making up the election boards, but Chairman Metzger says that each candidate may name a clerk and a judge, providing they recommend good, safe men for the places. Chairman Metzger will name the inspectors himself. But in order to make sure of fair play for the mayoralty candidates he will give each of them a watcher at each voting place if he is not satisfied with the present arrangement. He says he doesn't want anyone to be going around after the primary declaring that he got the worst of it. If the primaries are conducted fairly it is conceded that it will enhance the chances of the ticket at the fall election.

The city administration here seems to be bent on helping Governor Hanly and the anti-saloon crusade, as Mayor Holtzman has issued another order tending to close the city on Sunday against disorderly gatherings by refusing to permit the sale of liquor at the picnic of the iron molders' union to be held next Sunday afternoon. The order will apply to all Sunday picnics held on public grounds, but will not affect parks held and occupied by private organizations. The iron molders had sold over 3,000 tickets for their picnic and their representatives begged hard to change the mayor, but the latter would not budge. Many such picnics during the last few years have been so disorderly as to make the mayor's order necessary. It is understood that it has embittered hundreds of union men against him and that they are quietly threatening to bolt the Democratic ticket during the ensuing municipal campaign. The board of public safety has issued an order to the members of the police and fire departments that they must not participate in politics on penalty of being heavily fined. An order was also issued prohibiting firemen and policemen's balls.

Secretary Fred A. Sims of the Republican state committee is having an easy time of it in the race for the nomination for secretary of state. So far he is the only candidate, and the chances are now ten to one that he will be nominated without opposition. It begins to look as if he is to have as great a snap as Dan Storms, the present secretary, enjoyed in 1902, when he had a clear field. It was not thought then that two men would get the nomination without being opposed, as the office is one of the best in the statehouse, but Sims is starting out with brighter chances than Storms had when his name was first mentioned.

Governor Hanly and the members of the commission appointed to select a location for the southeastern Indiana hospital for the insane wound up their tour today at Madison. The governor and the commissioners were accompanied today by their wives. The commission has inspected sites offered at Columbus, Seymour, New Albany, Bedford and North Vernon. It is expected that a meeting will be held here on their return and a location will probably be selected before the end of this month.

MR. MEYER'S CALL

Conference With Czar May Have Large Results.

St. Petersburg, June 8.—With Ambassador Meyer's delivery to the emperor yesterday afternoon of President Roosevelt's message tendering his good offices, the prospect of the president's efforts to bring the belligerents together in peace negotiations is believed to be distinctly brighter. It is equally evident that the situation is an exceedingly delicate one. Ambassador Meyer absolutely declining to say a word regarding his visit to Tsarskoe Selo, the mission with which he is charged, or the emperor's response.

The center of interest is again transferred back to Washington. Count Cassini has doubtless received instructions from the emperor. However, it will probably require some little time to finally decide whether success shall crown the president's efforts to end the war. In the meantime it must be stated that there is not the slightest surface indication of any change in the situation regarding the continuation of the war.

Paris Has Hopeful View.

Paris, June 8.—The report that Russia had taken steps to learn through her ambassadors Japan's peace terms, further strengthens the hopeful view prevailing for the last three days. Considerable doubt prevails as to whether Tokio will be willing to put forward her terms without assurances that Russia is really desirous of peace. However, any movement on the part of Russia looking toward peace is interpreted as a most hopeful sign that peace councils are beginning to prevail in the highest quarters.

Thus Saved His Ships.

Vladivostok, June 8.—The failure of the Vladivostok squadron to put to sea and effect a diversion in favor of Admiral Rojestvensky at the time of the recent battle is explained to have been due to the utter absence of knowledge on the part of Rear Admiral Jessen as to whether Rojestvensky intended to circle Japan or attempt to force a passage through the straits of Korea. Jessen at no time was informed of the Russian commander's plans and was unable to co-operate with him.

Russia Will Deal Direct.

Vienna, June 8.—It is learned here that the Russian government has informed its diplomatic representatives abroad, including Count Cassini, the ambassador at Washington, that the time for Russia to conclude peace has not yet come and that when it does arrive Russia will open peace negotiations with Japan independent of foreign intervention.

Vladivostok Unconcerned.

Vladivostok, June 8.—The Russian naval disaster and the anticipated beginning of the siege of Vladivostok are in no way reflected in the attitude of the population. On the streets there is the usual noise and bustle of the promenading crowds, while at night the circus, comic opera and dance halls are running at full blast.

He Hears From Home.

Manila, June 8.—Rear Admiral Enquist received at 1 o'clock this morning the following cablegram from St. Petersburg: "Remain at Manila at the disposition of the American government. Effect repairs as much as possible.—Nicholai."

NEW DITCH LAW

Will Compel Many Counties in the State to Borrow Money.

MEETING ITS PROVISIONS

In Order to Clean Drains Once a Year as Provided in New Law Councils Must Raise Fund.

Reimbursement Will Be Secured by Assessments Against Lands Along the Drains.

Bluffton, Ind., June 8.—Many counties in Indiana will have to borrow money on account of the new drainage law passed by the last legislature. The law provides that the county surveyor shall have all of the regularly established drains cleaned once a year, beginning this year and no provision has been made for this work by the county councils. The Wells county council will hold a meeting soon to authorize the commissioners to negotiate a loan for $8,000, to pay for cleaning ditches, and many other counties will have to do likewise. The county will be reimbursed eventually by assessments against the lands along the drains, but the bills must first be paid out of the county funds.

A TRUSTEE'S TRUST

Township Affairs in Madison County Will Be Peeled.

Anderson, Ind., June 8.—In order that they may have a clear understanding of the new laws governing township trustees, and to make their business as public as possible, the thirteen trustees of Madison county will organize so that all can proceed as one body in the purchase of township supplies. Instead of each trustee going into the market, it is proposed to pool interests in the purchase of all supplies. The trustees will first prepare an estimate as to the quantity of fuel, schoolhouse furniture, road working machinery, etc., that may be needed during the year, and the bids will be called for, and the same will be made public, the lowest bidder getting the contract for furnishing the bulk of supplies for the thirteen township trustees. Purchase having been made by bulk, the trustees will make division as their respective needs may demand.

It is also proposed that all of the vouchers used by the trustees shall be exactly alike, with the exception of the name of the trustee, and that books and office stationery shall be purchased in bulk, by which it is expected that a saving of 100 per cent can be effected. This will also aid in heading off adverse criticism.

Good Cause to Smile.

Michigan City, Ind., June 8.—For the first time since he was brought to prison, Edward Donahue, convicted of the murder of Amter Northrop of Benton Harbor and sentenced to die on the gallows tomorrow, smiled when informed that the supreme court had granted him a stay of execution until Friday, July 21. Donahue will be kept in murderer's row until final action is taken in the supreme court.

General Remonstrance Effective.

Martinsville, Ind., June 8.—The county commissioners held the remonstrance filed by Jackson township citizens against granting licenses to any person to sell whisky, effective. This shuts out about six saloons and includes those at Morgantown and Mahalsville. The remonstrance contained 254 names, a majority of fifteen. It is general, and disposes of the question for two years.

Innocents Suffer.

Indianapolis, June 8.—Figures compiled by Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, for the annual report show that the deaths of 465 children in the state were due to lack of care during the year 1904, the rate being 17.5. The report for the preceding year shows that only five deaths of children were from this cause, the rate in 1903 being .1 per cent.

SLAIN BY BURGLAR

Columbus, O., Policeman Killed While Discharging His Duty.

Columbus, O., June 8.—Daniel E. Davis, a policeman, was shot and killed last night in an encounter with a burglar at the residence of Horace Chapman on East Broad street. Mr. Chapman, who is a prominent coal operator and at one time Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, is now in Europe with his family. The residence has been closed during their absence. The presence of burglars in the residence last night was revealed by an alarm connected with the district office, and a wagon load of police was sent to the residence. Two men were surrounded in the house. One jumped off the roof of a veranda and exchanged shots with Officer Davis, who was instantly killed. One of the burglars was captured, the other escaped.

Engineer George Phillips, Fireman Severns and five tramps who were riding on the blind baggage car are missing and are believed to be drowned. The baggage man climbed out of a window and the mail clerk crawled through a ventilator as the cars plunged into the water. The passengers were badly bruised and shaken up, but none was fatally hurt. The centerpiece of the bridge had been undermined by high water.

COUNTY NEWS

Sumner.

Quite a number of the Sumner folk attended the eighth year graduating exercises at Rushville Monday afternoon and Rays Crossing Monday night. Misses Zulu and Flossie Addison, of Arlington, were guests of Miss Ordie Swain Sunday. R. H. Phillips has advertised a large sale of fine Shorthorn cattle for June 16th. Rev. W. L. Northam, of Sheridan visited in the vicinity over Sunday. Misses Reba Fall and Zulu Howe and Mrs. Fletcher Branson, of Carthage, visited J. W. Northam Sunday. Arlie Rigsbee and Howard Presnell were home from Indianapolis Sunday. Warren Young is home from Edinburg, where he has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company for the past two months. A. H. Swain went to Maxwell, Hancock county, Sunday. Quarterly meeting services were held at the Wesleyan church Saturday and Sunday. Revs. Eddy, Hester, Northam and Baker were present and assisted in the services. The Sumner band will furnish music for an ice cream festival at Arlington Saturday night, June 10th. Mrs. Frank Folk and little daughter, of Baker's Corner, Hamilton county, visited Rev. Hester the latter part of last week.

Mauzy.

Chauncy Haskett visited at Straughns the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Joel Kirkwood were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Darnell in Mavette county during Saturday and Sunday. During the month of May there were 9 clear days, 10 partly cloudy and 12 cloudy days. Rain fell on 16 days; greatest in 24 hours was 1.95 inches on 11th; total for the month, 8.40 inches, largest amount in 25 years. In 1882, there was 8.00 inches; the next largest was in 1893, 6.86 inches. The least rain fell was in 1895, when only 0.79 inches fell. The maximum temperature occurred in 1895. The minimum temperature, 27 degrees occurred in 1903. Mrs. Emma Smith and Master Dolorus visited Mr. Wm. Morris and family the first of the week. A reputation once broken may possibly be repaired, but the world will always keep its eyes on the spot where the crack was. Minds of ordinary calibre ordinarily condemn everything which is beyond their range. Wm. Vandament was in our town one day recently. He who tries to injure another, injures himself more. A man must stand erect, not supported by others. Conceit may puff a man up, but can never prop him up. Inward religion, without the outward show of it, is like a tree without fruit—useless; and the outward show of religion without inward sincerity, is like a tree without heart—lifeless.

Union Township.

Miss Lela Kiser entertained about eighty of her friends at her home northwest of Ging last Saturday evening. Many games were played out on the lawn; then all went into the house where the refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Lemonade was served in the hall by Miss Kiser. Messrs. Willie Meyer, Frank and Ross Logan and Misses Ruby and Nellie McMillin assisted Miss Lela in serving the refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hood played several pieces on the violin and piano. "We wonder if Enoch would like to have some more ice cream." At a late hour all departed, reporting a good time and wishing Lela many more such enjoyable evenings. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Meyer and Misses Lela Kiser, Nellie McMillin, Mamie Warren, Cora Wilson and Frank Logan spent Sunday with Miss Von Wilson and attended the Children's Day exercises at Flatrock. Several from around here attended the Children's Day exercises at Rushville Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. John Logan and daughter Sallie were called to his mother's home in Walker township last Saturday on account of Mrs. Logan having her eye taken out. Messrs. Clem Hall and Aaron Kennedy entertained about fifty of their friends at the former's home last Wednesday evening. The games were played out on the lawn, which was lighted up with Japanese lanterns. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, bananas and candy were served at a late hour after which all returned home reporting a good time. Children's Day exercises will be given at the Plum Creek church next Sunday, June 11th, at two o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Randall and daughter Elaine were entertained at a six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. Theodore Schonert and family Tuesday evening.

MCGINTY GOT IT

First Sufferer Under Oregon's Whipping Post Law.

Portland, Ore., June 8.—Charles McGinty, a wife beater, received twenty lashes on the bare back, being the first sufferer under the new state law. The lashing was performed by the county jailer under the direction of the sheriff and a physician. The whip was a braided "blacksnake" made of rawhide, with four lashes. McGinty after receiving the sentence was hustled to jail, where he was stripped to the waist and his manacled hands tied to a door in the jail corridor above his head. Blood was drawn at the fourth blow. McGinty wailed and groaned and strained at the manacles binding his wrists.

Swedes Excited but Calm.

Stockholm, June 8.—The Norwegian coup d'etat was answered here last night by a great patriotic demonstration of loyalty and sympathy with King Oscar. A great procession accompanied by bands went to Rosendal castle, where the bands played the national anthem. In a few minutes the king and other members of the royal family appeared on a balcony of the castle and were enthusiastically cheered by the demonstrators, while a number of ladies advanced from the crowd and presented the king with a bouquet. Though greatly excited over the situation, the populace remains outwardly calm. King Oscar held a council last evening at which the situation was considered.

Europe Looks Askance.

London, June 8.—The revolution in Norway, though anticipated and peacefully effected, has come on Europe with unexpected suddenness, and the question is asked with some anxiety whether it will mean international complications. Had Russia not been involved in a different war in the far East it is doubtful whether Norway would have taken the present momentous step, which is not likely to be regarded with approval by European powers. Emperor William's omission of his customary tour of Norway this year seems to indicate his disapproval of the Norwegian policy, and the fact that the coup d'etat is not unlikely to eventuate in the establishment of a Norwegian republic would alone be a reason why the step should not commend itself to the nonarchical powers.

South Bend, Ind., June 8.—The ten-year-old son of Cory Huss was bitten by a rattlesnake, and is in a serious condition.

THE GIRL WHO WAS TOO GOOD

[Original.]

I was obliged to leave college during the spring of my senior year. I had devoted myself exclusively to study, and this had broken down my health. I was advised by my physician to go to some quiet country place and do nothing from morning till night but lounge. I chose the village of N. When I went there the leaves were budding, the air was soft and balmy, the walks were beautiful, and I gave myself up to strolling. On one of my routes there was a young ladies' seminary surrounded by a high brick wall. One morning while passing I heard a voice—it was soft and melodious and evidently came from a young girl uttering a string of words that could only be expected from one of the opposite sex: "By thunder! A thousand devils! Confound it!" The expletives were not all as innocent as these. There were many that would have done credit to the forecastle. A repetition of them would repel the reader, though to me the words came out with such apparent unconsciousness of guilt that I was simply amused. It was like a child just learning to talk, getting hold of expressions the meaning of which it does not understand. The girl did not seem to be angry with any one. She was evidently fascinated with the sounds, bringing them out with great gusto, as we students fired from out our throats the college yell. I was attracted to the girl without even seeing her. I pictured her as one of those little lumps who by their roguish ways fascinate all who come within their influence. She must have laughing eyes, a dimple in each cheek, the whitest of teeth constantly displayed in smiles by the parting of a pair of red lips. Then when romping with other girls I fancied her kicking off their hats, though if seen by a man she would turn scarlet. With my conception of her I fell in love, and, having nothing else to occupy my mind, I dwelt upon her charms constantly. I passed the school often, hoping again to hear the incongruity of a charming voice uttering such rough expressions, but this was not likely, and, though I often loitered for hours under the wall, I never heard the youthful swearer. Ten years later I chose a wife. I always regretted that fate had never thrown the swearer in my way, though I feared if I had met, loved and won her she might have been altogether too peppery for me. My fiancée, the daughter of a clergyman, was her very opposite—a girl of character, one who took great interest in the charitable work connected with her father's church—indeed, what might be called a model woman. After all, thought I, my little swearer must have turned out full of the old Nick, if not positively bad. Girls who have spice in them are attractive, but one never knows when a taste for wickedness is going to make them a trial to their husbands. Nevertheless I wished that my fiancée had just a dash of this same spice. She seemed to me to be almost too staid. Men of my kind, men who are themselves reserved, dignified, methodical, always superior to temptation—because, I have often thought, we are not of a nature to be tempted—usually admire our opposites. I felt myself getting a trifle wearied by my fiancée's similarity to myself. As our wedding day approached this feeling grew upon me. Was I not about to make a mistake—the mistake of a whole lifetime? This set me to brooding when I should have been looking forward to the delights of a novel condition. In time this something on my mind attracted the attention of the girl who was to be my bride. Instead of upbraiding me, as another woman would have done, she bore my condition without a murmur. This only dissatisfied me the more. "If she only had enough wickedness in her," I said to myself, "to tell me to go to the deuce I think I could be happy. As it is, she is killing me with her self control, her piety, her interest in good works. I should have known better than to marry a minister's daughter." My condition was such a few days before our wedding that after a bitter mental struggle, which left me awake all night, I resolved to go to my bride expectant and make a confession. I went to her house in the morning after breakfast and asked for her. She came down with a happy look on her face, but when she saw my careworn expression it left her at once. I led her to the library and shut the door. "I have called," I said ingenuously, "to say before it is too late that I fear we are going to make a mistake, and it is better to back out at the last moment than ruin a whole lifetime. I have come to the conclusion that we are too much alike—both too steady, too upright, too serious—indeed, you are too good." "So this is what has been troubling you," she said, her expression relaxing. "By thunder! A thousand devils! Confound it!" "Are you?"—I gasped. "The girl you have told me about so often? Yes. From what you said about her I supposed you condemned her. It appears I have made a mistake." With that she went on with a string of oaths so terrible that I put my hands to my ears that I should not hear. Then I caught her around the waist and stopped the flow of words with kisses. "All the real, practical goodness my wife had developed remained with her. The spice which she had concealed from me has been sparkling in her ever since our marriage." CLARENCE MEACHEM.

THE OPPORTUNITY OF TO-DAY

The opportunity for the man with little means is probably better to-day in the prairie states of the Southwest than ever before in the history of the nation. To be sure, there is not the vast open choice of land for the homesteads that existed in the '70s. The lands then taken up under government laws are now prosperous farms and ranches. The opportunity to-day is in the investment chances; in the purchase of farm lands at prices less than half the prices asked in the Older States. There is need of more hands to develop the country. In the Southwest—in Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas—are vast areas of unimproved land not yet producing the crops of which it is capable. Practically the same thing is true of the towns. Few lines of business are adequately represented. There are openings of all sorts for the right men. Are you one? If you are interested, tell us what you want, how much you have to invest, and we will gladly furnish the information. Write for a copy of our paper "The Coming Country." It's free. Address

The affairs of the old Arlington bank are gradually being wound up in a satisfactory manner. As yet there remains about 2½ per cent. between the assets and the liabilities. Goodrich and Jones, and the depositors will meet Friday morning at 9 o'clock in the Red Men's hall for the purpose of signing a written release to the bankers. In her complaint she alleges that Woods won her heart and hand, but that the entire contract had never been carried out by him. She thinks that 5000 good old daddy dollars will go a long way towards filling up the hole in her supply of affections. Mr. Woods recently fell heir to quite an estate. Both parties to the suit are well known, the plaintiff residing at Raysville and the defendant at Knightstown. Woods is under a grand jury indictment for smoking a cigarette.

Should, in a freak of fun, Reach up and touch the sun? That child would be 253 Years old, I'm told. Before it leared Its hand was burned!"

A card was received here today from Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barrett, who are on their way to Charlevoix, Mich. They are at present in Grand Rapids, having arrived there Wednesday at 9:40 a. m. The card states that a terrific cyclone passed over that vicinity and many miles of railway and bridges were washed away. At present Mr. and Mrs. Barrett are unable to get any farther north than Grand Rapids. They thought some of returning here, but later decided to wait until the breaks were repaired.

Chas. Bartine, the veteran showman, of Connersville, well known here, had quite a thrilling experience Wednesday morning while on a fishing expedition below Laurel, by having a very narrow escape from being drowned in the river. Mr. Bartine was holding to the limb of a tree, when it broke and let him fall head first into the stream which at that place was more than seven feet deep. The unfortunate man went under twice before his cries attracted the attention of his comrades who succeeded in getting him out alive.

John Clawson, who lives at or near Glenwood, made an unprofitable trip to Connersville Tuesday afternoon. Soon after arriving he purchased a complete suit of clothes and a pair of shoes. Then he started out to enjoy himself and it would seem that he succeeded in a way. A policeman found him in a mandarin condition and gave him the choice of going to jail or leaving town. He left. But during the evening he had lost his new coat, vest and shoes, and had forgotten what he had done with the old ones he had taken off. Luckily he was wearing the new pantaloons so they didn't get away.
